BOOKS FOR ABNEGATION

VESSEL

Sarah Beth Durst – YA DURST

Liyana has always known that in order for her tribe to continue to survive in the harsh desert, she must give her body over to become a vessel for their goddess, Bayla. She has selflessly accepted her fate, but though she performs the rituals, the goddess does not come and her people abandon her. She then embarks on a quest to find not only her missing goddess, but the kidnapped gods of other tribes as well. This unique fantasy will delight and inspire the self-sacrificing abnegation.

SCARLET

A.C. GAUGHEN – YA GAUGH

This re-imagining of the Robin Hood tale still stays true to the calling of the band of thieves in the original. Abnegation might not approve of their tactics, but would certainly sympathize with the motivations for “robbing from the rich to feed the poor.”

THE BOOK OF BROKEN HEARTS

Sarah Ockler- YA OCKLE

Jude's idea of an exciting summer after high school graduation didn't include taking care of her father, who has early onset Alzheimer's disease, but she selflessly sees that he is safe and tried to help him hold onto his memories by restoring his motorcycle he rode around Argentina in the happy days of his youth.

JUVIE

Steve Watkins – YA WATKI

When Sadie accepts the blame for a crime she didn't commit to keep her older sister out of jail, she learns about self-sacrifice and that “maybe not being guilty wasn't the same as being innocent.”

CROSSING STONES

This novel in verse follows several teens during WWII, where some experience war firsthand and others fight for peace and women's suffrage, causes that Amity members would surely support.

SORTA LIKE A ROCKSTAR

This is the story of Amber Appleton, who is relentlessly friendly and optimistic, even though she lives in a yellow school bus with her mom. If she lived in the world of Divergent, she'd definitely choose the Amity faction.

BOOKS FOR DAUNTLESS

BRUISED

Sarah Skilton – YA SKILT

BOOKS FOR ERUDITE

EVIL GENIUS
