“Izzy at the End of the World” by K.A. Reynolds is a cool adventure fiction novel. This story centers around Izzy Wilder who is a 14 year old girl who has autism. She is trying to survive when the whole world has basically ended. The book’s plot is after a serious incident everyone from the world has disappeared except for Izzy and her dog Akka. The setting is science fiction (post-apocalyptic), with Izzy and her dog Akka facing scary and dangerous monsters in Vermont. Izzy is resilient and determined not to lose anyone else in her family after the loss of Izzy’s mother. She fights the monsters and decodes messages that show her mother speaking beyond her grave. Izzy uses these messages on her journey on how the humans disappeared from Earth. On this journey Izzy meets and becomes friends with Raven. Raven is a survivor boy with asthma, anxiety and other issues. Both of them navigate the landscape and uncover life’s greatest mysteries. The story has suspense, exploration, action, etc. This story has determination from the main character and her friends to help all the humans who disappeared from Earth.
