What are “Banned Books?”

-“Banned Books” is a catch-all term that encompasses books that were banned, burned, challenged, forbidden, restricted, or otherwise removed by people or organizations that dislike their content or creator.

-Examples:

- A library patron demanding a book be removed
- A principal pulling all titles on a topic from a school library
- An organized burning of titles

-Book Banning is a strike against your Right to Read, and an attempt to stifle access to information. The Office of Intellectual Freedom (OIF, a division of The ALA) tracks challenges and creates lists and data packets every year.

Below are Teen Books that hit the OIF’s Top 100 Challenged Books Lists (indicated in Blue) between 1990 and 2022. Some titles even hit the Top 10 Most Challenged Books of the Year Lists (indicated in Purple). Give them a read; decide their worth yourself!
